Topic: Why / why don't? Because

We ask question with why when we want to know the reason for something.

We usually answer why questions with because followed by the reason.

Why did only rich Mayans drink chocolate?

Because cacao beans were very expensive.

Why is this chocolate sweet?

Because it has honey in it.

Why aren't you working on your project?

Because I'm doing my math homework first.

We can also use why don't to make suggestions.

If we can't or don't want to do what someone suggest, we can use because to give a reason.

Why don't you come to the museum with us?

I'd love to, but I can't because I'm visiting my cousins.
