Retelling vs Summarizing

Retell

- Tell the story again
- Use the author's words
- Add as many details as possible

Summarize

- Tell only the most important events from the story
- Put events in your own words
- Keep in mind the BIG IDEA- what the story is mostly about

Both

- only use details from the text
- Keep the details in the correct order

Unit 1B Ready to Read: Fiction

1 Read the text. What does the writer like best about winter?

My favorite season is winter. Snow blankets the ground, and the landscape is spectacular. Our yard is transformed into a wonderland with snow-covered trees that sparkle in the sun. My brother and I are astounded by the change. We run and swish through the snow, laughing as our breath turns to steam in the cold air. But best of all, we get to build a snowman.

My dad shovels the snow from our driveway into a big pile. Then, my brother and I get to work. We make a body and head, then we carve arms into the body. We make eyes and a mouth with pine cones and a nose with a carrot, and we add a hat and a scarf. When it's finished, our dad comes out to congratulate us.

Then, our snowman stands in our yard, defending our home. When the light fades in the evening, we can still see him from our window, glowing white in the dark. Goodnight, Mr. Snowman!

2 Match the words and definitions. Then, check your answers with a partner.
